

The Canberra Region Medical Education Council (CRMEC), the Postgraduate Medical Council of the ACT, is seeking expressions of interest for the role of senior representative.

The CRMEC is an ACT Ministerial Management Council established by the ACT Minister for Health to provide expert advice regarding education, training and welfare for junior doctors, and to perform accreditation functions. Council members include medical administrators, clinicians and clinical supervisors, education specialists, rural health representatives, junior doctors and consumers. The Council provides leadership and innovation in postgraduate education in the ACT, developing linkages with accreditation agencies and medical education providers and promoting partnerships with relevant national and jurisdictional organisations.

Senior representatives will have an established career and strong track record in medical education or healthcare administration, or a related field. The role of CRMEC senior representative includes:

- Contribution to strategic and expert advice related to prevocational medical education and accreditation within the network.
- Building stakeholder relationships and facilitating networking of organisations with a stake in prevocational education and training.
- Collaborating with other CRMEC members, advisors and the Secretariat.
- Attending 4-5 CRMEC meetings annually and respond to out-of-session requests.

Selection criteria:

- Demonstrates a record of achievement in medical education and/or healthcare administration and/or accreditation.
- Demonstrates a strong understanding of the context of prevocational medical education and training, including its accreditation, in the ACT training region and/or Australia-wide.
- Demonstrates a strong understanding of junior doctor welfare and safety in Australia.
- Demonstrates an understanding of conflict-of-interest management and ethical decision making.
- Demonstrates excellent communications and a contribution to collaborative teamwork.

Appointments to the Council will be made by the ACT Minister for Health for a period of three years. Public servants, employees in an ACT public hospital (including VMOs), or fulltime ANUMS employees are not eligible for remuneration. For eligible applicants, remuneration is determined by the ACT Remuneration Tribunal, Determination for Part Time Office Holders.
